“Gaining and Maintaining IT-Business Alignment.”

Join the Association of Information Technology Professionals' (AITP) IT Governance Special Interest Group for our next SIG meeting on Monday, July 13, 2009. This highly anticipated discussion will include a review of the dimensions of alignment that are required for IT and business alignment, the approaches to achieving alignment and a look at the IT operating models for executing the required processes.

Speaker BIO:

NADALIE BOSSE is the senior vice president responsible for IT Strategy, Planning and Delivery for CNA. In this role she is responsible for defining technology strategies to support CNA's corporate objectives and for driving delivery of technology solutions including large, transformational programs involving business and technology.

Before joining CNA, Bosse was a consultant for Northridge Group where she provided management and operations consulting services to Fortune 100 companies.

Nadalie Bosse's prior positions include executive vice president of Enterprise Services for Tellabs with responsibility for information systems, human resources and corporate communications, and 20 years with SBC/Ameritech and AT&T in positions including VP-new product introduction and billing, VP-Customer Service and Technology and various positions in operations, engineering and customer services.

Nadalie earned a master's of business administration degree from the University of Kansas and a bachelor's of science degree in industrial engineering from Kansas State University.
