Unfortunately, too many organizations buy and deploy them without first ensuring that the necessary supporting elements are in place to enable the technology to succeed. Chandler Howell will discuss the elements of an IT and Information Security program which ensure that companies receive the maximum benefit from their DLP investment as well as some considerations for deciding which components of a DLP solution make sense for different organizations.

Chandler Howell, CISSP, leads the IT and Information Security team for WMS Gaming, a Chicago-based manufacturer of slot machines. With over fifteen years of experience in Information Security and Risk Management in a variety of industries which include Financial Services, Healthcare, manufacturing and e-commerce.
